1. The sentence which was passed by the field court of the SS and Police Court in Ben Neig on June 27, 1944 concerniing the SS-Obersturmbannführer LIECKE, SS-Obersturmbannführer MAECKER and SS-Obersturmbannführer KLEINRAUER, has been forwarded to the Reichsführer-SS for confirmation. The Office of the Security Police and of the SD has, however, raised objections against the sentence. It is, therefore, doubtful whether the Reichsführer-SS will confirm the sentence.

2. The trial of the criminal suit against the SS-Obersturmbannführer MAECKER was adjourned since the defending counsel applied for an examination of MAECKER as to his mental status.

3. The preliminary investigations with regard to the criminal suit against the SS-Obersturmbannführer PAULI, SS-Obersturmbannführer KLEINRAUER and SS-Obersturmbannführer KLEIN are about to be concluded. Therefore, shortly, an action will be brought in an account of frivolous damage to defensive works and in the cases of KLEINRAUER and KLEIN in unity of crime with corruptibility etc.

I was born in Koeln as the son of the late Chief Inspector Otto Salwick and his wife, Elisabeth, now deceased.

I attended the elementary school and the Reformulgschule, including Untersekunda, in Koeln and continued to frequent the high school in Koeln-Bertha, where I passed the matriculation in 1924.
Subsequently I studied law at the universities of Koeln and Bonn.
In 1926 I passed the "Reife fur" examination in Koeln. During the period of my studies I was engaged in the activities of a student association which proscribed the fighting of students' duals (turn-schuf) and was also working for the students' self-administration.
During the vacations I earned the money for the following semester by working in different industrial enterprises.

On January 1, 1927 I entered the Prussian Civil Service as a candidate on probation for the position of a Criminal Assessor with the police administration in Bremen. On April 1, 1927 I was appointed candidate for the position of a Criminal Examiner and passed the Criminal Examiner examination with a "Good" result at the Higher Police School Siebe on October 9, 1928. On May 1, 1929 I obtained a lifelong employment as a Criminal Examiner. From October 19, 1931 until December 31, 1935 I was employed as an office chief with the Central Direction in Bremen. During this period I received an additional assignment, namely the training of candidates of the career of criminal police officials. In 1930 I attended a 6-weeks' course of sports teachers of the criminal police at the Police Sports School in Berlin-Spandau and in the course of the following years I attended several technical criminal special courses at the Police Institute in Berlin-Charlottenburg. Since January 1, 1936 I have been employed as an instructor at the School for the Training of Leaders for the City Police.

On December 26, 1928 I was married to my present wife Anita, Brooks. Our son Wolf-Dietrich, 4-3/4 years old, is descending from this marriage.

In 1936 I voluntarily reported for military training with the volunteer and following the 2nd training course with the Infantry Regiment 67 I became a Gefreiter of the reserve on March 6, 1936.

I have been a party candidate since May 1, 1937 and have been charged with the activities of a Blockleiter since November 1937.
